EARN COLLEGE CREDITS IN HIGH SCHOOL

Jump-start your college career with Penn State's Dual Enrollment program. High school students can enroll as a college student to take on-campus classes taught by world-class faculty.

Credits earned can be applied towards a Penn State degree and are part of one transcript recognized at all Penn State campuses, or your Penn State Dual Enrollment credits may be transferred to another college or university.

Our Dual Enrollment program offers incredible advantages:

- Complete college-required general education courses before high school graduation.
- Earn credits that can be applied to a Penn State degree at any Penn State campus.
- Receive a $65 Penn State application fee waiver for your campus of choice, including University Park.
- Experience college courses instructed by Penn State faculty.
- Use Penn State Shenango's on-campus resources like tutoring, career services and academic advising, Penn State's library system, and flex study and technology spaces.

Notes

Identify the track that fits with your high school schedule and choose up to one class from each time slot per semester. Most classes are on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

The classes listed are subject to change. Additional classes are available based on student needs and interests. Please contact Penn State Shenango Admissions at 724-983-2803 for more information.

Dual Enrollment students meet with a Penn State Academic Adviser. Generally, we suggest taking no more than one class in any General Education category: GA: General Education Art. GH: General Education Humanities. GHW: General Education Health and Wellness. GS: General Education Social and Behavioral Science. GWS: General Education Writing and Speaking.

DUAL ENROLLMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Penn State's Dual Enrollment program offers high school students the opportunity to take college-level courses to supplement their high school curriculum.

For consideration, the student must submit:

- Dual Enrollment Terms and Conditions form signed by the student and parent/guardian.
- Official high school academic transcript from a high school guidance counselor.
- Completed Undergraduate Nondegree Enrollment Form.

Requirements and expectations for this program include:

- Students will be assigned to an adviser who has met clearance requirements in accordance with the Pennsylvania Child Protective Services Law.
- Students will only have access to sections of courses taught by instructors with these same clearances.
- To ensure dual-enrolled students do not inadvertently schedule an inappropriate course section, they must meet with their assigned adviser to schedule courses each semester and must contact their advisers to make any subsequent schedule changes.
- Seniors may take up to 8 credits per semester. Juniors are strongly encouraged to start with 1 course.
- A grade of C or better in each course taken is required for students to continue in the program.
- Students who have graduated from high school may not participate in this program.
- Shenango Dual Enrollment students will receive a scholarship in the amount of one-half of tuition for up to 8 credits per semester while eligible in this program. The student is responsible for paying the remaining balance of tuition and fees.
